

The People TV Internship Program is open only to current college sophomores, juniors and seniors whose majors are TV, Film, Business, Communications or Marketing. The Program allows college students to gain valuable work experience while they explore future career opportunities and gain work experience while in one of the stations' departments, including Programming/Production, Community Development, Youth Channel, Business Office, Public Relations, Educational Services and Engineering. Interns are assigned to complete various projects and duties within each department. This is an UNPAID internship and is at minimum thirteen (13) weeks in length. Please note once again that you must be enrolled in a college that grants credits for participation in an internship to be eligible to participate in the program.

REQUIREMENTS
